LOGO PRINT

Below are some samples of various options for applying your logo to your promotional material.

LOGO PRINT

We offer various methods of applying your logo (or whichever motif you would like to use) to your promotional material. Virtually anything is possible. Just tell us what you would like. Have a look at some samples of our work below.

SILKSCREEN PRINTING

A stencil is used to prevent the color from being applied to certain parts of the material. Single-color or multicolor printing with custom colors is available.

DIGITAL PRINT

This print system usually involves electrophotographic methods such as laser printing to print photorealistic images. 4-color printing.

LASER ENGRAVING/MARKING

An intensive laser beam is used to engrave your logo onto the material.

EMBOSSING

A form or a stamp of the subject is made that defines the form of the finished surface.

EMBROIDERY

A high-quality embroidered motif is applied to the textile promotional material with an embroidery machine. Single-color or multicolor designs with custom colors are available.
